It is my sad duty to tell you that our CEO Fred Weinberg passed away recently. He had been ill for a few years but over the past year, things got very serious very fast. Janet Bro who is copied in this email is working with me to try to right the ship and keep everything going. You may note that since we discovered that Fred had not been paying the landfill assessment we have made payments toward the past due amount. Janet has come up with a payment toward this past due of which I was not aware. I know that Fred made promises back in 2018 and never followed up with paying off all of the past due. Suffice it to say that Janet and I have already made a good faith effort to get caught up on the landfill and we want to make both good as soon as we are able. I think we are all in a better position with KELY on the air and operating. None of us had any idea that this money was owed, only the late Mr. Weinberg. Given an opportunity, we'll get it back on track.

The mayor and most of the council members know we always cooperate with the city. We want to see this relationship continue. We believe that Ely deserves a solid, immediate, and authoritative news source that is not subject to the distortions of social media. For my 13 years here in Ely, I've tried to make that happen. In our time of trouble, we will do all we can to take care of this.

Our COO and I are always willing to talk with you.

7. 201 – 401 Bring'em Home

We have successfully brought Locomotive 201 home from Snoqualmie Washington.

The total weight of the locomotive was 100 tons and is 60 feet long. The truck and trailer that brought her here was 225 feet long. The trailer had 96-wheels under it.

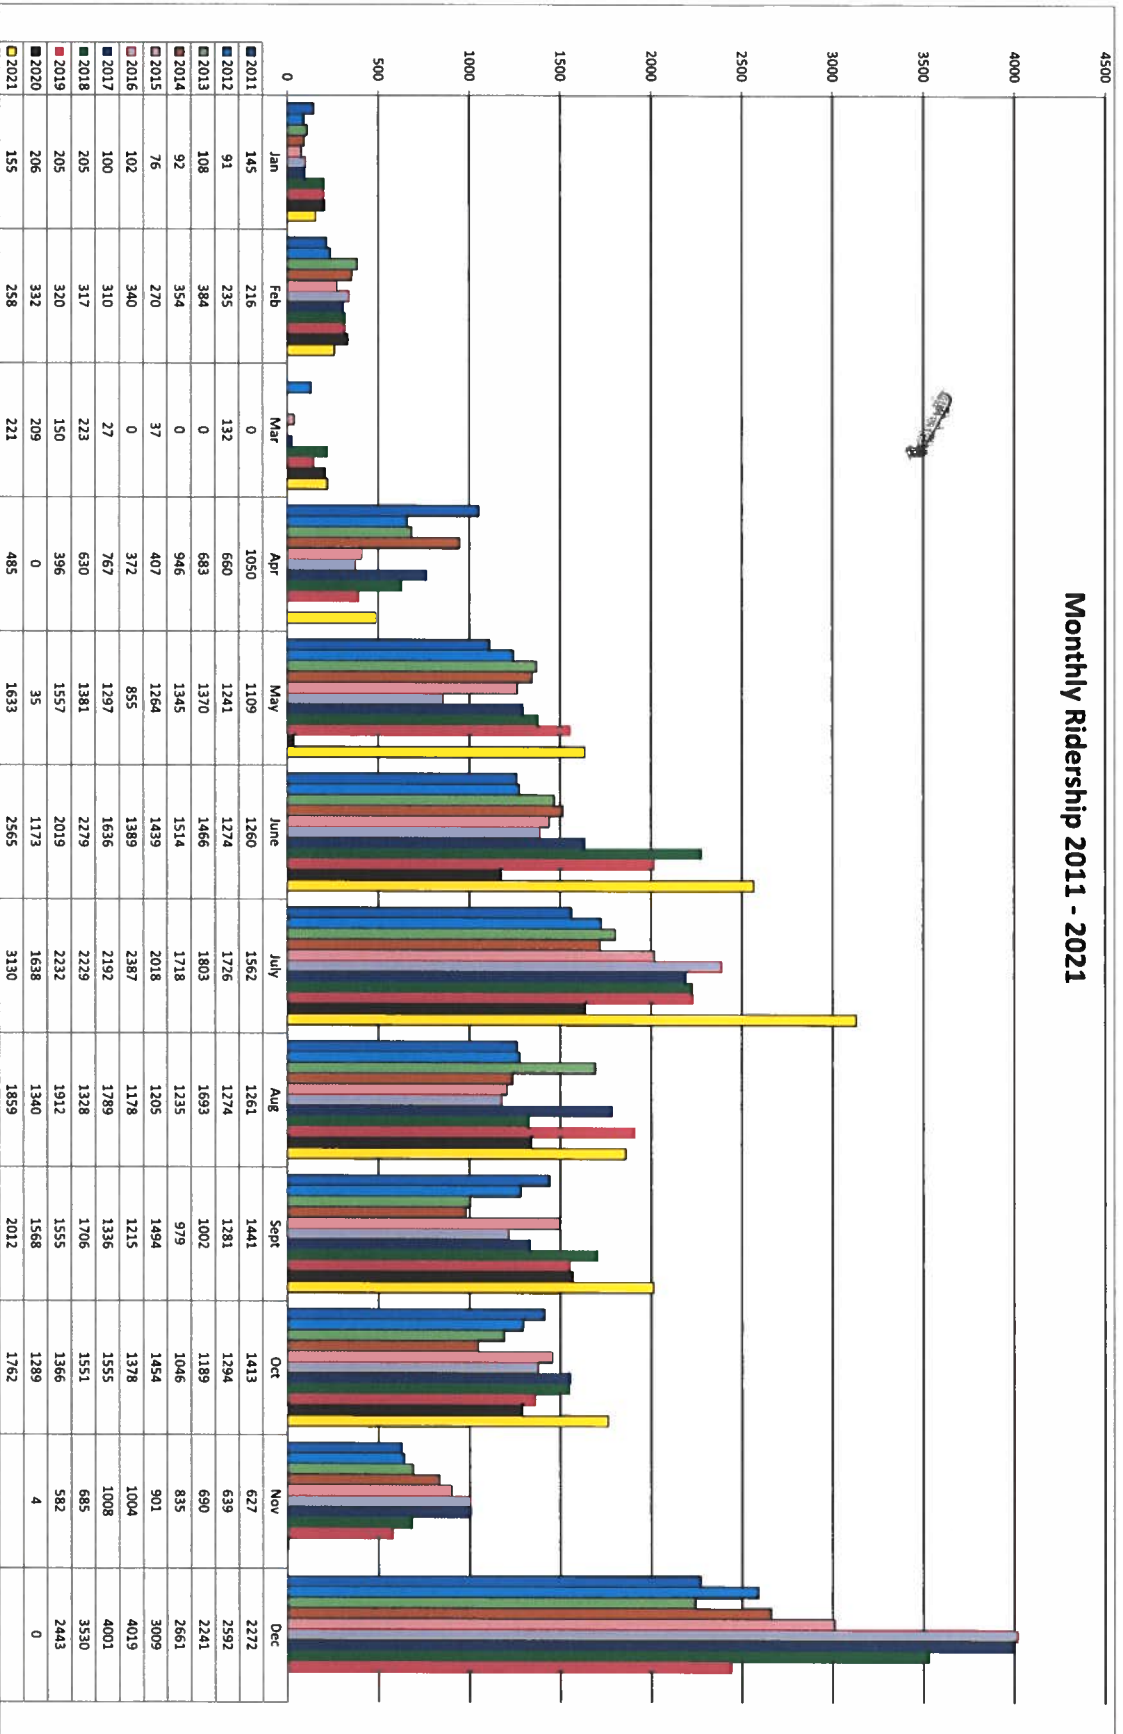

Locomotive 201 was purchased for ore service on the Nevada Northern Railway by Kennecott in 1951. She was here almost until the end and was given to the railroad museum in Washington in 1983.

Sher is an RSD-4. There were only 36 made and she is the sole survivor. She competes our collection, we have a RS-2 and a RS-3 too.

The move was extensively reported on in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Nevada.
