I would like to offer my warmest congratulations to White Pine County and to all the County Staff and Officials involved on a job well done. The new Justice Center is a lovely building that certainly addresses several safety issues that have existed in our local justice system for many years. I am pleased the City of Ely could participate with White Pine County on this project by donating part of the land for the new building that allowed the County to secure the USDA funding necessary for a large portion of the project costs. The utility of the new facilities will be a great asset for the Municipal Court and to our community as a whole. Public projects like the Justice Center are investments that spur development and community pride. The City of Ely is proud to continue to host projects in the County like this as we have done as the County seat since 1887.
